

THE STORY OF LIGHT FOR THE LOST

In 1953, a businessman named Sam Cochran saw a vision. Multitudes of people reached up for a Bible coming down from heaven. They cried out, "GIVE US THE BOOK!" Suddenly, they fell screaming into hell having never heard the gospel. Later, Sam rallied men to raise funds to provide evangelism resources for missionaries sharing the gospel all over the world.

The movement those men started in 1953 eventually became Light for the Lost. People hear the gospel and come to Christ as a direct result of LFTL's ministry.

The mission continues. We invite you to join us.
